Livonia Town Hall is back!

Livonia Town Hall is proud to announce the 2026-2027 lecture series. The upcoming season will have four dynamic and engaging speakers. We will open the season on October 21, 2026, with Elliot Engel sharing "The Dickens Nobody Knows." On November 18, 2026, Caroline Winterer with talk about the "Genius of Benjamin Franklin." Jane Oneail will share "Fierce Females: Women in Art" on Marcy 17, 2027. And, finally, on April 21, 2027, Tom Santopietro will talk about "Audrey Hepburn: A Life in 63 Scenes." Find more details on the "Speakers" page.

This year season tickets cost $175 for regular seating and $195 for patron seating. Individual tickets may be purchased at $55 per program. The programs begin at 10:30 am., lunch will be served after the lecture and it will be followed by a short question and answer session.

You can download a copy of the registration form on the Speakers page. To ensure that you sit at the same table as your friends, all checks and information must be submitted together at one time.
