THE WHITE ROSE

TICKETS

In 1942 a group of students chose to actively protest the atrocities of the Nazi regime and to advocate that Germany lose the war as the only way to overthrow Hitler's regime. They published their thoughts in five anonymous leaflets which they titled "The White Rose." Based on true events, this play tells the story of their arrest, interrogation, and the outcome.

FEBRUARY 20—22 and 27—28

Written by Lillian Garrett-Groag | Directed by Olivia Deane

Presented by special arrangement with Dramatists Play Service.

Louis Masur

*"America's Founding Father:
The Life of George Washington"*

Returning for a second engagement, Louis Masur is a Distinguished Professor of American Studies at Rutgers University. He is an engaging and informative cultural historian who focuses on distinct moments of history and seeks to unpack their meaning. The examination of George Washington will begin with an exploration of his life as a Virginian, military leader and first President. In America, Washington became a hero unlike any other.

Michael Minor

"An Unforgettable One Man Variety Show"

Michael Minor is an accomplished singer, actor and ventriloquist. He began his entertainment career in 1st grade, performing for friends and family. He is a versatile entertainer with a show that has something for everyone. As a singing ventriloquist he impersonates both old and young, think Louis Armstrong to Justin Timberlake. It is a one man variety show like you have never seen.

Xiao Dong Wei, erhu
Yuki Mack, piano
February 18 at 12 p.m.

Chinese-born Xiao Dong Wei, a 2012 Krege Fellow, is a master of the erhu, a two-string Chinese fiddle that has played a noble role in Chinese folk and classical music. While she knows her native traditions like the back of her hand, she has also made a specialty out of bringing her instrument into Western classical idioms and American pop music.

Japanese-born pianist Yuki Mack has performed throughout the United States and three continents. Her performances include a broad range of piano works, including chamber music and as a soloist with orchestras. Beyond the main stage, she has performed live on the radio in Sweden, Italy, Poland, and the United States, and has appeared in a documentary on PBS.
